Taylor Anderson, Former Millwood Student, Honored

Taylor Anderson, who lost her life in the tsunami following the March 11 earthquake in Japan, was honored posthumously at Millwood School's middle school Graduation and Award Ceremony on June 8th. Since the school's 20th anniversary two years ago, a former student is named each year as a Distinguished Alumnus. Mrs. Jean Anderson, Taylor Anderson's mother, accepted the award on behalf of her daughter. Mrs. Wendy Williams, Taylor's aunt and a former Millwood parent, was also there for the presentation.

The Distinguished Alumni Award plaque reads:

*In Recognition For Outstanding Achievement
In Fulfilling The Vision Millwood School Has For Its Graduates:
Millwood School Produces Accomplished, Well-Rounded,
And Resourceful Graduates Who Measure Up To Their Potential, Lead Principled Lives, And Strive To Make The World A Better Place.*

Taylor, a 2000 graduate of Millwood School, had been in Japan for the past 2 1/2 years as part of the Japan Exchange and Teaching Program in the coastal city of Ishinomaki, Japan. Taylor exemplified the characteristics stated in this award.
